

Bible Conference

March 21–26, 2004

Bob Jones University

“Come...apart...and rest a while” (Mark 6:31). This was the Lord’s prescription for His weary servants who had been busy in the Gospel work.

This year’s Bible Conference will be a “coming apart” time for those of His people who have been busy for Him. There will be the refreshing waters of God’s Word to nourish and soothe us. There will also be refreshing fellowship with friends and fellow believers.

This is what those of us here at the University, who have labored for Him throughout the school year, need—it is what His people everywhere need. The good preaching of some of the Lord’s choicest servants and the most heavenly music this side of Heaven will do us all good.

Why not make your plans to join us? Springtime may likely be in the air, but it is certain that the Conference will bring springtime to the Christ-loving heart.

Don’t miss it!

Sincerely yours,

Bob Jones III

Things to do on campus

The days during and after Bible Conference are packed with things to do and see while you're visiting BJU. Here's a brief synopsis of these activities.

Events

Andrea Chenier

March 16, 18, 20—The University Opera Association presents Umberto Giordano's dramatic portrayal of the passion and fatal intrigue of the French Revolution, staged by Darren Lawson and conducted by Dwight Gustafson.

For ticket information, call (864) 242-5100, Ext. 5750, or e-mail programs@bju.edu

Parents Day

March 24—On Wednesday, the University honors the parents of current BJU and BJA students. Campus Store discounts are available to all parents, and meals in the Dining Common are "on the house" for parents accompanied by their children who are dormitory students. Parents are also welcome to visit their children's dormitory rooms.

Pastors and Christian Workers Luncheon

March 24—The University invites all full-time pastors, youth pastors, evangelists, missionaries, and their wives to be our guests at a luncheon Wednesday at noon in the Red Room of the Dining Common. Since space is limited, tickets are required and may be picked up at the Information Desk in the Administration Building from 8 a.m. on Monday to noon on Wednesday.

Alumni Day

March 25—On Thursday, BJU alumni are especially honored. Every alumnus will receive a memento of the day. Members of the Alumni Association will also receive added discounts at the Campus Store, free use of the Fremont Fitness Center, and a free meal in the Dining Common (present your membership card at the Alumni Office to receive your free meal ticket). Museum & Gallery admission is also free to alumni who present their membership card. The annual Alumni Association meeting (FMA) will be held immediately after the evening service followed by the alumni reception in the Social Parlor.

Class Reunion Locations—March 26

Class of '94—Elementary School Cafetorium

Class of '79—Academy Auditorium

Class of '74—Junior High Cafeteria

Class of '64—Primary Center Gym

Class of '54—Dining Common (Red Room)

Opportunity Days

Experience college for yourself! Fun and informative activities give teens a fast-paced, close-up encounter with university life. Request a brochure.

Campus Attractions

The following attractions are available at various times during Bible Conference week. See the individual entry or the schedule for specific times and take in as many as possible while you're here.

BJU Museum & Gallery

Visit a world-class art collection, open Tuesday through Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m., and observe art and culture from Bible times through the 19th century. The thirty galleries present an accurate view of religious art and history with over 400 paintings of European sacred art by the Old Masters, rare Russian icons, the Bowen Collection of Antiquities, and more. A modest admission fee is charged. This season offers the following activities:

- Easter Exhibition March 16–April 11, featuring works about the apostle Peter. Stroll through the galleries at your own pace and see how various masterworks combine to create a rich “portrait” of this dynamic—and at times paradoxical—biblical figure.

- Children six and older are invited to visit the Museum & Gallery with an adult and participate in the Easter Scavenger Hunt during our Easter Exhibition.
- Complimentary admission for alumni Thursday, March 25. A special Art in Focus lecture will be given Thursday at 3 p.m. for all guests.
- Friday, March 26, from 4 to 5 p.m., the Gallery will be filled with beautiful sounds of live music during our biannual Music with the Masters program.

Mack Library

Open M, Tu, W, F from 3–5 p.m.; Thurs. 1–5 p.m.

- Jerusalem Chamber—a reproduction of the room in London's Westminster Abbey where parts of the King James Version of the Bible were translated. Serves as a display area for the University's collection of rare Bibles.
- Archives Room—a fascinating array of materials dealing with the history of Bob Jones University.
- Earle W. Sargent Boardroom—This elaborate room features hand-carved pilasters, Tiffany stained glass windows, and chandeliers from the Astor Hotel in New York.

A Sure Foundation

Your senses will be dazzled as you view this fast-moving, highly informative, 35-minute multimedia presentation of campus life at BJU. No tickets are necessary. Doors will open 15 minutes before starting time, and seating will be on a first-come, first-served basis with no standees. See schedule for times.

Seminary and Evangelism Center

The Bob Jones Jr. Memorial Seminary and Evangelism Center opened in March 2000 as a world-class center for training seminary students. The beautiful rotunda contains multimedia displays, memorabilia, a mural, and sculptures dealing with evangelism, preacher training, and missions.

University Displays

Be sure to visit with our representatives and counselors by the displays in the lobby of the Student Center. They are waiting to answer your questions about Bob Jones University.

Please Note

No photographic or recording equipment is permitted in any auditorium or assembly building. Tapes of certain messages, as approved by the speakers, may be obtained through the Campus Store.

Children six years of age and older (when accompanied by an adult) are welcome in the BJU Museum & Gallery and any service or program.

Modest apparel is required. Those whose attire is not in keeping with University standards will be denied admission.
